SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 5.

What I Live For.

I live for those who love me, For those I know are true, For the heaven that smiles above me And awaits my spirit, too; For all human ties that bind me, For the task my God assigns me, For the bright hopes left behind me, And the good that I can do.

I live to learn their story, Who've suffered for my sake, To emulate their glory, And tollow in their wake ; Birds, mirtyrs, patrio's, siges, The notice of all ages, Whose deeds crown history's pages, And time's great volume make.

I live to hall that season, By gitted minds ferstell, When men shall live by reason, And not alone for gold; When man to man united, And every wrong thing righted, The whole world shall be lighted As Eden was of old.

I live to hold communion With all that is divine, To feel that there is weigh 'Twixt Nature's heart and mine; To profit by all erion, Reap truth from fields of fiction, Grow wise from conviction-Falfilling God's design.

I live for these who lose me. For these that know me true, For the heaven that smiles above no And waits my spirit, too; For the wrongs that need resistance, For the cause that needs assistance, For the future in the distance, And the good that I can do.
